And Then There Were None

Characters:
- Mare
- Jil
- Mert
- Dina
- Owen

Mood:
- The mood is suspenseful and tense, with a sense of unease building throughout the story.

Red Herring:
- The red herring in this story is the character of Dina. Her actions and motivations are often misleading, leading the others astray.

Theme:
- The theme of this story is the nature of trust and betrayal. The characters must learn to discern the truth from the lies.

Main Conflict:
- The main conflict is the struggle between the characters to uncover the truth and expose the killer.

Symbolism:
- The symbolism in this story is the use of the title, "And Then There Were None," as a foreshadowing of the impending doom.

Prediction:
- The prediction for the story is that the killer will be revealed in a surprising twist at the end.

What goes around comes around

Strategic Assets in Crowdfunding

CASEISM.COM
What Goes Around Comes Around? Rewards as Strategic Assets in Crowdfunding

Red Herring
Mr. Justice Wargrave provided a red herring, and Dr. Armstrong believed it, but died in the process.

Theme
What goes around comes around.

Main Conflict
The main conflict is the people trying to figure out who is killing them.

Characters
I think one of the most important characters is Dr. Armstrong because if it wasn't for him the killer would probably be suspected and the killers plan would fail apart.

Setting
The book is set in London, but in a far-flung location.

Symbol
A red herring is a symbol of the unexpected.

Prediction
I believe that after the conclusion the killer will be revealed, maybe it is the media that is the real killer.

Mood
When I read this book, I felt like I had to watch my back and be suspicious all the time. It was a lot of fun and I've been quite addicted.
And Then There Were None

CaseISM.com
Setting

This book is taken place in the 1900’s on a island called Indian Island.
I think one of the most important characters is Dr. Armstrong because if it wasn’t for him the killer would probably be suspected and the killers plan would fall apart.
Main Conflict

The main conflict is the people trying to figure out who is killing everybody.

CASEISM.COM
Red Herring

Mr. Justice Wargrave provided a red herring, and Dr. Armstrong believed it, but died in the process.
Ten Little Indians

Ten little Indian boys went out to dine;
One choked his little self and then there were nine.
Nine little Indian boys sat up very late;
One overslept himself and then there were eight.
Eight little Indian boys travelling in Devon;
One said he'd stay there and there were seven.
Seven little Indian boys chopping up sticks;
One chopped himself in halves and then there were six.
Six little Indian boys playing with a hive;
A bumblebee stung one and then there were five.
Five little Indian boys going in for law;
One got into a scrape and then there were four.
Four little Indian boys going out to sea;
A shark came and swallowed one and then there were three.
Three little Indian boys walking in the snow;
A big bear hugged one and then there were two.
Two little Indian boys sitting in the sun;
One got fried up and then there were one.
One little Indian boy (left all alone) He went and hanged himself and then there were none.

I believe that each death was a symbol of the poem in the book.
When I read this book I felt like I had to watch my back and be suspicious. I also felt a lot of suspense and was surprised quite a bit. "It is perfectly clear. Mr. Owen is one of us." (pg.135) had the same mood that I felt throughout the story.